KAUAI VISITORS GUIDE™

WELCOME:

Welcome to the lush, beautiful island of Kaua'i, often referred to as "The Garden Island."

LANDMARKS, ATTRACTIONS AND POINTS OF INTEREST:

NORTH SHORE

Elegant, majestic, rugged, lush, secluded, stunning, quaint.

Ha'ena

A tropical paradise awaits you at the end of Hwy 56.

Ha'ena Beach Park aka Maninihola Beach. (Named after the fish) A favorite spot for camping. A county permit is required.

Ha'ena (Red Hot) State Park

Ke'e Beach and Reef, Waikanaloa and Waikapala'e Wet Caves, the Kalalau Trailhead, and ceremonial Heiau sites.

Kalalau Trail

This world renowned trail begins at Ke'e Beach, follows the Na Pali coastline down to the Hanakapi'ai Valley and the magnificent Hanakapi'ai Beach on to the trails end to Hanakapi'ai Falls. The 8 mile hike can be difficult, and sometimes treacherous.

Ke'e Beach

A beautiful lagoon for swimming and snorkeling. Walk a little beyond the beach to catch glimpses of the Na Pali Coastline. Look back at the mountains for a view of Makana Peak, aka Bali Hai from the movie.

Limahuli Garden (National Tropical Botanical Garden)

Learn about ancient Hawaiian plants amongst rock terraces built over 1,000 years ago.

Maninihola Dry Cave and Waikapala'e Wet Cave

Across from Ha'ena Beach Park. Exposed lava tubes from thousands of years ago resulted in the formation of these magnificent caves. The Maninihola Cave is often tied to the legendary Menuhune people.

Tunnels Beach

Most probably the best spot to snorkel and scuba on Kauai.

Wainiha Beach Park

Great place to take sunrise and sunset walks on the beach.

Hanalei

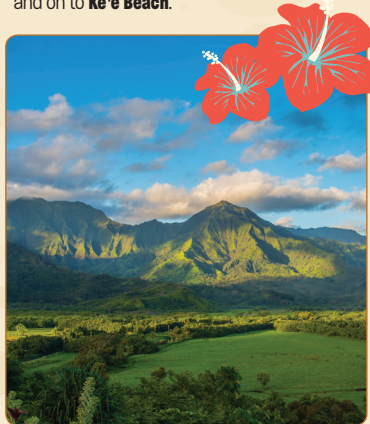

Wonderful shops, galleries, restaurants, and some the best surfing in all of Hawaii. Visit Wai'oli Mission House, listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

Hanalei Bay

This magnificent two-mile crescent shaped beach attracts surfers worldwide. Exercise extreme caution, especially during the winter months.

Historic Hanalei Road (Highway 560)

A lookout just before the road drops down into Hanalei Valley gives an amazing panorama of the Hanalei Taro Fields against a mountainous backdrop. The next 10 miles takes you through Hanalei and Hanalei Beach, and on to Ke'e Beach.

Kalihiwai

Between Kilauea to the East and Princeville to the West.

Kalihiwai Bay and beach

Take the first Kalihiwai Road just west of Kilauea to Secret Beach, Secret Lava Pools (hiking required), and Unnamed Twin Falls. The second Kalihiwai Road, connects to Anini Road leading to Anini Beach. Protected by one of Hawaii's largest reefs, Anini is one of the most safest swimming beaches on the North Shore. Also very popular for windsurfing.

Kilauea

Kilauea, once a thriving sugarcane plantation complete with train to haul the cane, and a village with its historic stone houses, is now the gateway to the lighthouse and wildlife refuge. Slightly east lie the secluded beaches of Waiakalua, Pila'a and Larsens, all of which need walking to.

Kilauea Point National Wildlife Refuge/ Daniel K. Inouye Kilauea Lighthouse

Several species of seabirds can be seen here, including Iwa Birds, the Red-Footed Booby, the Laysan Albatross, and the Hawaiian State Bird, the Hawaiian Nene Goose. On the brink of extinction during the 1950s, the Hawaiian Nene Goose is now estimated to be around 1300 throughout Hawaii with at least half the population on Kaua'i. There is a gift shop and historical center located in the lighthouse, built in 1913 and boasting the largest "Clamshell lens" in existence. This landmark also serves as the northernmost point of the main group of Hawaiian Islands. Directly opposite the lighthouse lies Moku'ae'ae Island, a bird sanctuary.

Na 'Aina Kai Botanical Garden

Created by the first wife of the late Charles Schultz (Peanuts fame). Amazing sculptures placed throughout the 240 acre garden. Call for tour times.

Moloa'a (Matted Roots)

Between Kilauea and Anahola.

Moloa'a Bay/Beach.

Gilligan's Island fame. Secluded, horseshoe shaped bay is good for snorkeling. Stay within the two points.

Na Pali Coast

Rises up over 4,000 feet in 1/2 a mile. Spectacular, rugged, and isolated. Best seen from the sea, air, and for the adventurous, by land. The coast stretches for 15 miles, between Ha'ena State Park and Polihali State Park. Explore spectacular cliffs, shoreline, and sea caves by guided kayak tours during the summer months. Cruises available year-round. Fixed wing and helicopter tours show off the hidden valleys. An 11 mile trail cuts across five valleys leading down to the beach.

Na Pali Coast State Park

Only partly accessible by hiking the Kalalau Trail or by year round cruises or sea kayaks during the summer months.

Princeville

Named after Hawaiian Prince Albert, the 2 year old son of King Kamehameha IV. Ka Haku Road leads to Hideaways Beach. Punahele Road leads to Queens Bath if accessible. Both are considered very dangerous for swimming.

Wainiha

Part of the Hanalei district.

Wainiha Bay

Slightly west of Hanalei Bay lies Kalahala Beach and a little further west lies Lumaha'i Beach, made famous from the filming of the 1957 classic "South Pacific."

EAST SHORE/ROYAL COCONUT COAST

Named for the once thriving coconut groves.

Anahola

Look north for a view of Kalalea Mountain aka King Kong's Profile.

Anahola Bay Anahola Beach Park, Aliomanu Beach and Papa'a Bay.

Anahola Beach Park

Overnight camping allowed. One of Kauai's safest beaches to enjoy.

Donkey Beach aka Kumukumu Beach aka Paliku Beach

15 minute walk. Perfect for sunbathing, but not good for swimming. Pick up the paved Eastside Trail running all the way down through Kapa'a and on to Waipouli.

Hanama'ulu (Tired Bay)

Ancient birthplace of King Kawelo, one of the Kauai 'an kings.

Hanama'ulu Bay

Hanama'ulu Beach Park. Popular with locals for swimming, picnicking, and fresh water fishing. (The Hanama'ulu River flows into the mouth of the Lagoon).

Ahukini Pier Recreation State Park. Ahukini Landing.

Kauai's first commercial seaport. Swimming prohibited. Excellent fishing.

Kapaa & Wailua

Kapa'a is a mecca for shopping, dining, oceanfront accommodations, and getting on the Coastal Pathway. Wailua and the Wailua River Area was the first Hawaiian landing site by the ancient Tahitians. Heiau structures built by these ancient Hawaiians for religious rituals and purposes dot the area. Seven of these lie between the mouth of the Wailua River, and Mount Wai'ale'ale. Within a few feet from the Holoholoku Heiau, lie the Birthstones, one to support the back, and the other for leg placement during childbirth. It was decreed that all kings of Kauai were to be born here.

Fern Grotto

Boat tours, kayaking and canoeing take you up the Wailua River to this natural lava rock grotto, once reserved exclusively for Hawaiian royalty.

Fuji Beach aka Baby Beach

A great place for kids to swim and explore the tide pools.

Ho'opi'i Falls Trail

A short 2 mile hike to 2 waterfalls. The first waterfall is popular for cliff jumping. The second waterfall is recognizable from the Jurassic Park movie. The trail tends to be muddy and slippery.

Kapa'a Beach Park

Easy beach access and parking. Good for walking, biking, and fishing. Swimming not recommended during winter months.

Kealia Lookout.

Great ocean views with Kealia Beach on one side and Coconut Coast to the East. Perfect for whale spotting during their winter migration.

Kealia Beach Park.

Popular for boogie boarding, and body surfing during the summer months. Exercise caution with the big surf during winter.

Lihu'e-Koloa Forest Reserve (above Wailua)

Access to the Na Ala Hele Trails. Rough roads. Public hunting of "mammals only" permitted. Keahua Arboretum features 30 acres of forest, streams, meadows and pools. Popular hiking, biking, horseback riding and picnicking. Pick up the Kuilau Ridge Trail. Easy hike with spectacular views of Mount Waialeale.

Lydgate Beach Park

Two sandy beaches with lava rock enclosed pools make it ideal for swimming and wading, especially for toddlers and young kids. The Kamalani Kai Bridge (Playground) is perfect for kids.

Nonou Forest Reserve

3 popular hiking trails. Nonou Trail East, Nonou Trail West, and Kuamo'o-Nonou Trail.

Nukoli'i Beach

A beautiful 2 mile beach behind the Wailua Golf Course makes it the longest beach on Kauai's East Coast. Swimming conditions are questionable.

'Opaeka'a Falls

Follow Kuamo'o Road, one of the most spectacular falls on Kauai.

Sleeping Giant

Legend has it that a giant by the name of Kanaka Nunui Moe, after carrying rocks from Polihale, and timber from Koke'e to help build a temple, was honored by Nunui Village with a feast. After eating copious amounts of bananas, the giant became sleepy, and lay down to rest, and never woke up. Popular hikes offer spectacular views. Can you see the "Sleeping Giant."

Wailua Bay/Wailua Beach

Waipouli Beach and Waipouli Beach Park. A popular fishing spot for locals.

Wailua Falls

Take Ma'alo Road to these world famous falls.

Wailua Municipal Golf Course

Rated as one of Hawaii's top 15 golf courses.

Wailua River State Park.

The Wailua River is thought to be the original Hawaiian Islands landing spot by the Tahitians (circa 1,000 AD), and was home to Ali'i (royalty). Heiau (temple) remains can be found throughout the area, with many archeological remains of sacred sites still in existence. The Wailua River is the only navigable river in all of Hawaii. Take a kayak just two miles upriver, hike for another mile and you will discover a beautiful 125 foot waterfall and pool that you can swim in. Kayak and canoe rentals are available at the Wailua Marina. Also located on this 30 acre botanical and cultural garden is Smiths Tropical Paradise which hosts one of the most popular Luau's on the island.

Lihu'e & Kalapaki

Lihu'e is Kauai county's government seat and main center for commerce and industry. Most traffic comes in and out through the Lihu'e Airport. Nawiliwili Harbor caters to the cruise ship industry.

Alekoko Fish Pond, aka Menuhune Fishpond.

Lookout located just off Nawiliwili Road, and adjacent to the Hule'ia Stream. Legend has it that over 1,000 years ago, a tribe of "Small People" built the pond in just one night by forming a human chain 25 miles long to pass along the stones used to complete the project. A gate constructed at the inlet allowed the fish to enter but not exit. After feeding and fattening, the fish were then harvested. The Menuhune are considered to be the original "Native Hawaiians" who travelled from the Marquesas Islands circa 300AD.

Grove Farm Homestead Museum.

The former home of the prominent George N. Wilcox, and his descendants. Tours available Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. Reservations required.

Hule'ia National Wildlife Refuge

Nestled alongside the Hule'ia Stream as it flows into the Boat Harbor and Nawiliwili Bay.

Kalapaki Bay

Kalapaki Beach. Ideal for bathing, beginner surfers and Boogie boarders. Good selection of bars and restaurants.

Kaua'i Museum.

Featuring a wonderful collection of vintage photographs.

Kilohana Plantation.

A beautifully restored 16,000 sq.ft mansion built in the early 1900s. A great place to shop and dine. Take a train ride through the 36 acre grounds. Sample rum from Kauai's first and only commercial distiller.

Nawiliwili Bay

Nawiliwili State Boat Harbor and Niumalu Beach Park. The harbor caters to the cruise ships industry.

Running Waters Beach/Ninini Point Lighthouse (Nawiliwili

Harbor Lighthouse)/Kaua'i Lagoons Golf Course

If accessible, the top of the 86 foot lighthouse offers a spectacular view.
